CATHOLIC UNIVERSITIES PARTNERSHIP

NANOVIC INSTITUTE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES

A. James McAdams, director
The Nanovic Institute for European Studies
211 Brownson Hall
University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, IN 46556 USA
Phone: 574.631.5253
Email: Nanovic@nd.edu

Internationals must remain a central element of our University’s aspirations.

Notre Dame Strategic Plan 2010: Fulfilling the Promise
Catholic colleges and universities across the world are currently organized into a federation of separate regional groups.

The Nanovic Institute for European Studies creates connections across these divides by bringing the University of Notre Dame together with six universities in central, eastern, and western Europe to pursue specific scholarly collaborations. Our annual meetings are practical in focus. They produce concrete results.

We also bring the brightest young faculty from these universities every year to the University of Notre Dame. They live close together, produce new scholarship, and lead special seminars for faculty and students. They form lasting scholarly and personal friendships. Their experience here helps them to achieve tenure at home, rise to positions of campus leadership, and provide the basis for further and closer cooperation between all our universities.

Such partnerships enrich us all and are a direct means of elevating the international profiles of our Catholic universities.

INTERNATIONALISM MUST REMAIN A CENTRAL ELEMENT OF OUR UNIVERSITY’S ASPIRATIONS.

Notre Dame Strategic Plan 2010: Fulfilling the Promise
Visiting Scholars Programs

The Nanovic Institute supports visits of varying length to Catholic European scholars in a wide variety of fields. Visitors have complete access to campus research libraries and other facilities. Housing and office space are provided. In addition to pursuing their own projects, visiting scholars work alongside other talented faculty from Notre Dame and Europe. A special Visiting Scholar Seminar, lasting up to two weeks, can also be proposed.

For more information, please visit NANOVIC.ND.EDU.

SEMESTER PROGRAMS

Available during the Fall (September - December) and Spring (January - April).

Summer Scholars available during the summer (May - August) for one month terms.

Visiting Scholar Seminar a one to two week visit during September or October.

---

"The Nanovic Institute provided me with support in every way, both professionally by offering me an office, access to libraries, and online resources, and personally by helping me to find my way around. I cannot possibly think of a more welcoming and stimulating environment for a guest professor."

Veronika Schandal PÁZMÁNY PÉTER CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY PILISCSABA, HUNGARY

"My visit to the Nanovic Institute provided me with the very important experience of studying and working in one of the world’s best academic environments."

Ján Baňas Catholic University of Ružomberok, Slovakia

I admire James McAdams’ and his team’s commitment towards developing intellectual friendships with and providing a scholarly impetus to the young developing Catholic universities in Eastern and Central Europe.

Taras Dobko Ukrainian Catholic University in Lviv, Ukraine

---

Our University Partners

- Poland
  - John Paul II Catholic University

- Hungary
  - Pázmány Péter Catholic University

- Ukraine
  - Ukrainian Catholic University

- Italy
  - Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore

- France
  - Institut Catholique de Paris

---

Our University Partners
Visiting Scholars Programs

The Nanovic Institute supports visits of varying length to Catholic European scholars in a wide variety of fields. Visitors have complete access to campus research libraries and other facilities. Housing and office space are provided. In addition to pursuing their own projects, visiting scholars work alongside other talented faculty from Notre Dame and Europe. A special Visiting Scholar Seminar, lasting up to two weeks, can also be proposed.

For more information, please visit NANOVIC.ND.EDU.

SEMESTER PROGRAMS
AVAILABLE DURING THE FALL (SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER) AND SPRING (JANUARY - APRIL).

SUMMER SCHOLARS
AVAILABLE DURING THE SUMMER (MAY - AUGUST) FOR ONE MONTH TERMS.

VISITING SCHOLAR SEMINAR
A ONE TO TWO WEEK VISIT DURING SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER.

"The Nanovic Institute provided me with support in every way, both professionally by offering me an office, access to libraries, and online resources, and personally by helping me to find my way around. I cannot possibly think of a more welcoming and stimulating environment for a guest professor."

VERONIKA SCHANDLER
PÁZMÁNY PÉTER CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY PILISCSABA, HUNGARY

"My visit to the Nanovic Institute provided me with the very important experience of studying and working in one of the world's best academic environments."

JÁN BÁNYAS
CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF RUŽOMBEROK, SLOVAKIA

"I admire James McAdams' and his team's commitment towards developing intellectual friendships with and providing a scholarly impetus to the young developing Catholic universities in Eastern and Central Europe."

TARAS DOBKOW
UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY IN LVIV, UKRAINE
Visiting Scholars Programs

The Nanovic Institute supports visits of varying length to Catholic European scholars in a wide variety of fields. Visitors have complete access to campus research libraries and other facilities. Housing and office space are provided. In addition to pursuing their own projects, visiting scholars work alongside other talented faculty from Notre Dame and Europe. A special Visiting Scholar Seminar, lasting up to two weeks, can also be proposed.

For more information, please visit NANOVIC.ND.EDU.

SEMESTER PROGRAMS AVAILABLE DURING THE FALL (SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER) AND SPRING (JANUARY - APRIL).

SUMMER SCHOLARS AVAILABLE DURING THE SUMMER (MAY - AUGUST) FOR ONE MONTH TERMS.

VISITING SCHOLAR SEMINAR A ONE TO TWO WEEK VISIT DURING SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER.

“What The Nanovic Institute provided me with support in every way, both professionally by offering me an office, access to libraries, and online resources, and personally by helping me to find my way around. I cannot possibly think of a more welcoming and stimulating environment for a guest professor.”

VERONIKA SCHANDL
PÁZMÁNY PÉTER CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY
PILISCSABA, HUNGARY

“My visit to the Nanovic Institute provided me with the very important experience of studying and working in one of the world’s best academic environments.”

JÁN BAÑAS
CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF RUŽOMBEROK, SLOVAKIA

What Our Partners Say

“I admire James McAdams’ and his team’s commitment towards developing intellectual friendships with and providing a scholarly impetus to the young developing Catholic universities in Eastern and Central Europe.”

TARAS DOBKO
UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY IN LVIV, UKRAINE
For more information about the Nanovic Institute and different ways you can support our efforts with international visiting scholars and the Catholic Universities Partnership at Notre Dame, please contact us.

A. JAMES MCADAMS, DIRECTOR
The Nanovic Institute for European Studies
211 BROWNSON HALL
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
NOTRE DAME, IN 46556 USA
PHONE: 574.631.5253
EMAIL: NANOVIC@ND.EDU

NANOVIC.ND.EDU