

Catholic University Project ('CUP') Symposium 2009

Identifying Opportunities for Academic Cooperation

Collegio S. Bonaventura ('Seraphicum'), Rome

Catholic University of Lublin (KUL)

- Catholic theology
- Canon law
- Philosophy, including philosophy of nature
- Studies in the Slavonic religious literature
- Teaching English to blind children
- Celtic studies

Ukrainian Catholic University (UCU)

- Eastern Christian Studies (Kyivan Christianity and Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church as example of communication between Eastern and Western Christianity)
- Medieval Studies
- Modern and Contemporary History of Central and Eastern Europe (European religious, cultural, and intellectual phenomena, especially European context of the Ukrainian history)
- Public and Applied Ethics (family studies, public ethics, business ethics, issues of religious freedom and human rights, bioethics)

Catholic University in Ružomberok (RUZ)

- Philosophy (mostly political philosophy and metaphysics)
- English and (North) American Literature of the 20th century
- Political Science, especially the war and peace theories
- Didactics of the Social Teaching of the Church
- Applied Mathematics (and other Natural Sciences) in Teacher Training
- Poverty in an interdisciplinary approach
- Ecumenical Dialogue, theological, pastoral, social aspects
- Actual Bioethical Challenges in Healthcare

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore (UCSC)

Institut Catholique de Paris (ICP)

Pázmány Péter Catholic University (PPKE)

- Family law and social sciences (gay marriage, labor laws in favor of women with children)
- Legal/social situation of the churches in Central Eastern Europe v. US
- Security policy/international law/ new World Order
- European Union and the United States as soft and hard powers
- Environmental law and ethics

University of Notre Dame (ND)

- Philosophy (Medieval; Continental; Phil. of Religion, Action; Kant; other campus centers)
- European Languages and Literatures, esp. Italian (Dante), Early modern English (Shakespeare), French, Russian and East European
- Law (comparative, natural)
- European integration, immigration
- Business ethics and management
- Architecture
- Film