

NANOVIC INSTITUTE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES STUDENT CONFERENCE 2019

Saturday April 27, 2019 | 10:30AM - 12:30PM | McKenna Hall, 210-214

Conference Agenda

---

- Breakfast: 10:00-10:30AM
- Panel I: (Re)Negotiating Cultures and Identities in Europe, 10:30-11:20AM
  - Elsa Barron, “Redefining Occupation and Belonging: The Implications of an Official Athens Mosque for Repairing Ottoman Wounds and Integrating Muslim Migrants in Greece”.
  - Sevda Arslan, “Language, Religion, and Emplacement of Zazaki Speakers”.
  - Madeleine Andreas, “Portals of European Discovery: An Investigation into the Socio-Cultural Influence of James Joyce on Contemporary Dublin”.
- Panel II: Theoretical Approaches to Contemporary European Issues, 11:30-12:20
  - Thomas Doran, “See, Judge, Act: Migration in Theology”.
  - Colleen Mitchel, “Chicken-Men and Christian Men: Machiavelli on Religion and the State”.
  - Samuel Piccolo, “Nationalism and Narrative: An Arendtian Analysis”.
- Lunch, 12:20-1:00PM