

Undergraduate Workshops

SPRING 2021

The Nanovic Institute for European Studies is excited to announce the following workshops for undergraduate students interested in summer research or internship funding in Europe. If you're new to grant proposal writing or simply need a refresher on the requirements of Nanovic funding, you are invited to join us for any or all of these sessions. Students in any college or major are eligible for Nanovic funding—attend a workshop to learn more!

NANOVIC SUMMER GRANTS: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Wednesday, February 17, 7:00 - 7:45 pm

This information session will cover the basic requirements for the Nanovic Institute's summer undergraduate funding. If you are interested in conducting research or interning in Europe this summer, stop by this virtual session to learn more about summer grants through the Nanovic Institute. This event is open to all interested undergraduates.

NANOVIC SUMMER GRANTS: HOW TO GET STARTED

Wednesday, February 24, 7:00 - 7:45 pm

This information session will provide tips and tricks for finding the right internship and how to create an appropriate summer research project. We will cover the importance of finding the right faculty mentors and how to ensure your project or internship is suitable for Nanovic funding. This event is open to all interested undergraduate students.
